NEXX Systems Names Cristina Chu Investor Relations/Marketing Specialist

Billerica, MA – April 26, 2010 – NEXX Systems today announced that Cristina Chu has been named as Investor Relations/Marketing Specialist. Ms. Chu comes to NEXX with a diverse background, holding bachelor's and master's degrees from Dartmouth and Harvard, respectively. She is trained in architecture and design and has work experience ranging from investment banking, software development and public relations in the US, Europe, and Latin America.

"Cristina will be an excellent resource for building NEXX's emerging presence as a public company," stated Thomas Walsh, CEO of NEXX Systems. "Her broad experience brings key expertise to the NEXX team."

"I am delighted to join the distinguished team of industry professionals at NEXX, a company that I believe is leading the economic recovery of the US," added Ms. Chu. "This is an exciting time to come home to the States and contribute to the growth opportunities in the advanced packaging sector. As the market for consumer electronics explodes overseas and expands into emerging sectors, such as solar and LED lighting, it is a privilege to be part of a company that is innovating for success."

NEXX Systems brings exceptional technical expertise to flip chip and advanced packaging. Our product lines provide the most efficient, yet affordable, systems of their kind: Stratus for high throughput electro-deposition of metals, and Apollo and Nimbus for multi-layer sputter deposition of metals.
