

Course Name:Nimbus XP/HP Level 2 Maintenance Course (NOP-303)Course Objective:

The course will cover Advance Maintenance on the Nimbus XP/HP Deposition System. This 5-day course will provide the student with a General Tool overview, advance theory of operation and instruction, and calibration of the Nimbus XP/HP System.

The student will be able to:

- Identify and describe the function of major components and subsystems
- Identify facility requirements
- Understand system power up/down procedures
- Go through software screens/run recipes
- Perform advanced preventive maintenance on the module
- Perform advanced system troubleshooting

Who should attend? Any equipment and/or maintenance technicians and engineers who are responsible for repairing/maintaining the Nimbus XP/HP deposition systems.

Prerequisites:

- Completed Nimbus Operator (NOP-301) and Level 1 Maintenance (NOP-302) courses
- Basic understanding of electronics/electrical theory
- Basic understanding of vacuum/pneumatics
- Basic understanding of schematics, mechanical drawings
- Basic understanding of troubleshooting techniques

Course enrollment information:

- Length of class is five (5) days
- Minimum/maximum number of students: Two (2) minimum and six (6) maximum.
- Class will be delivered at the Billerica, MA headquarters training facility.
- Class Time: 8:45am -5:00pm