

Course Name:Stratus S200/300 Operator Course (SOP-301)Course Objective:

The course will cover operations on the Stratus S200/300 electro-deposition system. This three-day course will provide the student with a general tool overview, theory of operation and instruction, and operation of the Stratus S200/300 electro-deposition system.

The student will be able to:

- Identify and describe the function of major components and subsystems
- Identify safety requirements
- Understand simple maintenance procedures
- Go through software screens/run recipes

Who should attend? Any operator or equipment maintenance technicians and engineers who are responsible for operating/repairing/maintaining the Stratus S200/300 Electro-Deposition System.

Prerequisites:

- The trainee should be familiar with the operation of complex electromechanical equipment.
- No prior experience or knowledge of NEXX Systems' components is required.

Course enrollment information:

- Length of class is three (3) days
- Minimum/maximum number of students: Two (2) minimum and six (6) maximum.
- Class will be delivered at the Billerica, MA headquarters training facility.
- Class Time: 8:45am -5:00pm